

The Maritime Artisans Speakers' Series is a collaborative project between the Hull Lifesaving Museum and Mass Bay Maritime Artisans of Jones River Landing Environmental Heritage Center. Now in its 3rd year, the Series features individuals serving the history and continuation of marine trades in coastal Massachusetts.

Sept. 23rd 1:00 PM at Duxbury Yacht Club, Duxbury. Classic Boat Festival. Matt Murphy, editor of WoodenBoat Magazine will talk about his new book Glass Plates and Wooden Boats.

Oct. 12th 7:00 PM at Jones River Landing, Kingston. Steve Sprole, Ritchie Navigation. For 154 years, Ritchie has produced navigating tools in Massachusetts.

Nov. 2nd 7:00 PM at Hull Lifesaving Museum, Hull. Eric Ronnberg, Jr., historian and master model-builder, will tell the story of researching and building a 19th century RNLI lifeboat design.

Nov. 16th 7:00 PM at Jones River Landing, Kingston. Patrick Otton, Historian of USS Constitution and founding member of the Luna Preservation Society will speak to the issues that arise when rebuilding wooden ships and working vessels.

Dec. 7th 7:00 PM at Hull Lifesaving Museum, Hull. Dan Sheehan, Cal-Tek Kayaks, is a seminal figure in the development and engineering of small paddling boats in fiberglass. Dan will tell the story of the development of his latest boat, a Greenland Kayak.

Dec. 14th 7:00 PM at Jones River Landing, Kingston. Nat Benjamin, of Gannon and Benjamin, will speak of the design and building of Juno, a 65' schooner launched in 2003.

Admission: $5.00 donation appreciated.

For info and directions, call Reuben Smith, Jones River Landing boatshop director, at 617-462-7215 (cell) or email mbma@jonesriver.org.